Principal

Dear Families,

I begin my newsletter with a heartfelt “Thanks” to so many within the community who have made this week so special: firstly to the senior students, senior band, parents and teachers who were involved in the successful OPEN Twilight on Wednesday evening as we showcased St Kieran’s school for another cohort of families joining our community.

Secondly to the parents who so beautifully organised for the Mothers’ Day breakfast, in particular, Sania Saady and Deb Sweeny and their committee of helpers with special mention to the supportive dads. It was a beautiful occasion and truly appreciated by our mothers who were able to gather again the spirit of Mothers’ Day. The liturgy presented by our Kindergarten was particularly moving as the focus was on our own spiritual mother, Mary, our model of gentleness and strength in her saying YES to God and being open in her expression of faith hope and love.

“Hail Mary, full of Grace. The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, Pray for us sinners, Now and at the hour of our death, AMEN

Happy Mothers’ Day to all our mums, carers and grandmothers!

ATHLETICS CARNIVAL

I am pleased to advise that the rescheduled Athletics Carnival for St Kieran’s, Kindergarten to Year 6, will take place on Monday 18 May at Millers Oval. Please advise the school if you are able to assist in the running of the day.

Everyone’s good at something! Supporting kids’ confidence

How confidence develops

For most children starting school means spending more time on learning and less on play. It also means more expectations of them – from parents, carers, teaching staff and also from themselves.
Primary school children typically start out with high expectations. When they see how well they do things compared to others, their view of their own abilities often changes. They learn that they are good at some things and not so good at others. They also see how other children and teaching staff respond to what they do.

Children who lack confidence in their abilities sometimes try to avoid even having a go at some things. This can get frustrating for parents and carers. It can also stop children from developing the skills they need to tackle tasks confidently.

How parents and carers can help build confidence in their children
Confidence improves through building on small successes. Parents, carers (and teaching staff) can help by:
- explaining to children that skills develop with practice
- encouraging children to persist when they don’t succeed straight away
- praising effort, persistence and improvement
- making sure that goals are achievable by breaking down large tasks or responsibilities into small steps
- being ready to help when necessary, without taking over.

“Encouraging children to have a go and valuing individual improvement support children’s confidence”

Confident thinking
Self-esteem is an important part of confidence. Having good self-esteem means accepting and feeling positive about yourself. Confidence is not just feeling good but also knowing you are good at something. Particular ways of thinking are very important for building confidence. Helpful ways of thinking include:
- believing that, if you try, you can succeed
- finding positive ways to cope with failure that encourage having another go
- enjoying learning for its own sake by competing with your own performance rather than that of others.

Dealing with disappointment
Everybody fails to achieve their goals sometimes. Parents and carers (and teaching staff) can help by:
- Responding sympathetically and with encouragement, e.g. “That was disappointing, but at least you had a go.”
- Helping kids focus on what they can change to make things better, rather than thinking that the situation is unchangeable or that there is something wrong with them, e.g., “What can you try that might make that work better next time?”
- Challenging ‘I can’t’ thinking by showing, and saying, you believe in them and reminding them of what they have achieved.

Optimistic thinking recognises what has been achieved more than what is lacking. It looks at the glass as half full rather than half empty.
Parents and carers can help children focus on their own effort and on achieving personal goals as the best way to measure success.

God bless,

Assistant Principal

Later this month, we will be holding our Open Classrooms for parents to come into classrooms and view part of a Numeracy Block. The date for this is Monday 25 May. At the end of that week, teachers will send home either a Maths Workbook or samples of investigations in Maths. This will be particularly “timely” for those parents who, by then, would have completed the Parent Education Sessions in Numeracy.

Actually seeing the teaching and learning of Maths is a positive way to consolidate new learnings and insight into current practice in this area. There are a couple of remaining places for the Parent Education Sessions (Dates: May 12 and May 19). Should you be interested in attending please either fill in the slip at the end of this newsletter or contact me at school by no later than Monday 11 May. I look forward to starting our sessions next week!

The OPEN TWILIGHT was a wonderful success on Wednesday this week. I must extend my heartfelt thanks...

...to all the WONDERFUL helpers who assisted. To the parents who acted as Tour Guides on the evening; the parents who delivered flyers directly to letterboxes in their local neighbourhoods (coordinated by our fabulous Class Parent Coordinator!); the Year 6 students who assisted on the night; the Senior Band (what an outstanding performance!); the “Band Parents” who transported children/instruments and assisted on the night; the teachers who showcased specific KLA’s and/or assisted by also acting as Tour Guides; our Admin staff…….Thank you!! Teamwork really is the key to such a positive achievement!!

Have a lovely weekend!
Marisa
Religious Education Coordinator

Who would have thought that our beautiful Kindergarten group would be leading the school in such a reverent and prayer?

Thank you to our Kindy students and their teachers for a wonderful Mother’s Day liturgy where we recalled that Mary, the mother of Jesus, is our mother also.

Sibling Enrolments 2016

Cyber Safety Week at St Kieran’s!
This week is St Kieran’s Cyber Safety Awareness Week. The Technology Team have been working extremely hard with their teacher mentor organising to provide a variety of resources that students can use in the classroom to promote and encourage discussion around Cyber Safety at St Kieran’s.
As parents, you don’t need to be a technology expert to help keep your children safe online. The parenting skills for online safety are the same as they are in the physical world. While children might seem to have good technical knowledge, their online behaviour still requires parental monitoring and guidance. Computer filters and e-security software are good basic protective measures to have in your home. Education and communication are also important in helping to keep your child safe online.

The Guide to Online Safety for Parents can be found on the following website:

This is a fantastic guide with specific advice for parents when dealing with tricky online situations such as Cyber Bullying, Mobile Phone Safety, Sexting and Social Networking. It is encouraged that all parents discuss these Cyber Safety issues with their children so as to reiterate the learning that has been happening at school this week. It is important to remember that being Cyber Safe is a joint effort. It involves the combined efforts of students, teachers and parents.

World Asthma Day

Last Tuesday was World Asthma Day which is a timely reminder to parents to ensure their child’s Asthma Plan is up to date and a copy is given to the school. If you wish to know more regarding asthma please visit asthmaaustralia.org.au.

Students with asthma may carry their Ventolin on them and it is always worthwhile having a spare kept in the school office. No other medications other than for asthma or anaphylaxis should be carried by students and both these need a plan held by the school. All other medications require a signed request by the parent and a medical practitioner and must be kept in the school office.

Children’s Choir

The Children’s Choir will be singing at 9.30am Mass at St Kieran’s next week on Sunday 17 May. Please have your children at church by 9am. There will be a practice for the first half of lunch, next Tuesday 12 May at 1pm. Please meet Kathryn Williams outside the canteen after the 2nd lunch bell. WE’D LOVE TO WELCOME LOTS OF NEW SINGERS!!!!! So if you’ve never been in the choir before, come along to the practice, we’d love you to join us! If your child usually goes to oval on this day, please remind them not to go to oval and they can have some fun singing with us instead!

We’re looking forward to hearing lots of wonderful voices in 2015!

God bless,

Maria Dunn & Kathryn Williams

Band

To all band members, a reminder that the Band Workshop is on Saturday 16 May from 1 – 5pm. Please practise all your pieces so you can enjoy the day. Looking forward to it.
